

The Office of Financial Analysis and Innovation (FAI)

The Office of Financial Analysis and Innovation (FAI) is dedicated to both streamlining processes and ensuring financial integrity. We achieve this by implementing efficient and transparent procedures to reduce bureaucracy and enhance accessibility, optimizing the allocation of commitment authority, and minimizing bottlenecks that impede progress. To ensure investments deliver measurable value, FAI conducts fiduciary assessments and evaluations of funded projects, including readiness programs, funding proposals, and restructuring initiatives.

