

Division of Country Programming

The Division of Country Programming (DCP) supports developing countries and accredited entities, particularly direct access entities, to plan, identify, design and submit country-driven, transformational climate investments in line with countries' NDCs, NAPs, and other national climate strategies, and manages accreditation and entity relations to enable a programming-driven network of accredited entities capable of delivering on country-driven transformational projects and guided by GCF strategic priorities.

