

GREEN
CLIMATE
FUND

Asia Structured Dialogue

CHINA

Liu Lei Foreign Economic Cooperation Office, Ministry of Environmental Protection of China

26-29 April 2017 | Bali, Indonesia

About FECO

Foreign Economic Cooperation Office, Ministry of Environmental Protection of China (FECO)

- Founded in 1989
- FECO's overall international project portfolio amounted to about $1.8 billion in grants
- Accredited as the GEF implementing agency in 2015
- Became the GCF accredited entity in December 2016

PPF Application

- Increasing carbon sinks and enhancing the climate resilience of vulnerable populations by sustainable management of peatlands

Funding Proposals to be submitted

- Promotion and Demonstration of Green Supply Chain Management in China
- Promoting substitution of coal in North China by clean energy and highly efficient equipment

PPF Application

“Increasing carbon sinks and enhancing the climate resilience of vulnerable populations by sustainable management of peatlands”

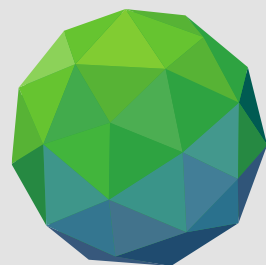

- Cross-cutting
 - Focus on national strategies and priorities
 - Prioritize vulnerable populations
 - Pursue synergy effects in biodiversity and ecosystem conservation
- Feasibility study
 - Baseline survey
 - ESIA
 - Gender analysis
 - Financial and Economic Analysis

Funding Proposals to be submitted

“Promotion and Demonstration of Green Supply Chain Management in China”

“Promoting substitution of coal in North China by clean energy and highly efficient equipment”

GREEN
CLIMATE
FUND