Is it really possible to make a difference in the global fight against climate change? Join the first ever Green Climate Fund (GCF) Champions Awards to learn how it is. The awards celebrate the winners of GCF's first ever recognition of successful climate action across the planet. They highlight and promote noteworthy efforts by individuals and organisations to make a difference addressing the climate crisis in developing countries.

The winning initiatives are examples of environmental, social and business-led innovation combatting climate change – both in limiting and reducing greenhouse gas emissions and in helping people and the planet adjust to climate change impacts.

Come and meet GCF's first Climate Champions at our Announcement Ceremony. This special event will celebrate the six winners chosen by an honorary jury of leading climate change figures, some of whom will also be present. What is GCF?

GCF is the world's largest dedication fund to combat climate change. It invests in low-emission and climate-resilient development in over 100 developing countries. nations. The United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) set up GCF in 2010 to turn innovative mitigation and adaptation plans into climate action. GCF is promoting a global paradigm shift in low-emission and climate-resilient development, taking into account the needs of nations that are particularly vulnerable to climate impacts.
