

Division of Private Sector Facility

The Private Sector Facility's mission is to engage the local and international private sector to support climate change mitigation and adaptation projects in developing countries. Its role is to fund highly transformative projects and mobilize private and institutional investment to de-risk and support climate change action.

