

Office of the Executive Director

The Office of the Executive Director is responsible for overall management of the Secretariat. This includes executive leadership across the Secretariat; strategic leadership and direction-setting in policy and planning; oversight of operations, programming, and partnership development; climate and impact advisory; and coordination of knowledge management.

